

Handout: 3D Lines

If our lines lived in three dimensions, instead of on a two dimensional page, parallel is not the same as "not intersecting". Can you see why not?

In this instance, parallel means "going in the same direction".

Find an example of two lines that are NOT parallel in three dimensions, but nonetheless do not intersect.